Submit immediately, to appropriate address on second page.
Be sure to include W8 or W9 forms.

You may qualify for a Student Travel Grant to defray some of your costs for presenting a paper at one of the following 2004-2005 conferences: ICC, GLOBECOM, INFOCOM, WCNC, CCNC, NOMS or IM. IEEE Communications Society will award a limited number of Student Travel Grants to full-time engineering students. This grant is US$1000 plus a complimentary copy of the record. To qualify you must:

- Be a valid student member of IEEE Communications Society at the time of application
 - To qualify for a Student Travel Grant you must (see exception marked with an asterisk below) reside in a Region other than the one in which the Conference is held:
 - If the Conference takes place in North America (IEEE Regions 1-7), you must live in IEEE Regions 8, 9, or 10 to qualify.
 - If the Conference is in Europe, Africa or Middle East (IEEE Region 8), then students residing outside Region 8 may apply.
 - If the Conference in Latin America (IEEE Region 9), then students residing outside IEEE Region 9 will be able to apply.
 - If the Conference is in the Asia-Pacific (IEEE Region 10), then students outside IEEE Region 10 may apply.
- * Students, who live in the same major area as the conference, are also eligible for travel grants, but only under exceptional circumstances and under very restricted conditions. This grant is US$600 plus a complimentary copy of the record. To be considered please contact your regional representative
- Be an author who will present an accepted paper at this Conference;
 - Not have received a similar grant in the past 12 months; and
